

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

The power of yogurt!

Learning Outcome

Describe unusual events through a wider range of B1 language in both work and social contexts.

Ask your partner:

- Is yogurt a part of your diet? Why or why not?
- What do you know about the health benefits of consuming yogurt on a daily basis?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about food, drinks and staying healthy.
- I can talk about things I am supposed to do and things that are supposed to happen.
- I can talk about my attitudes toward an action.

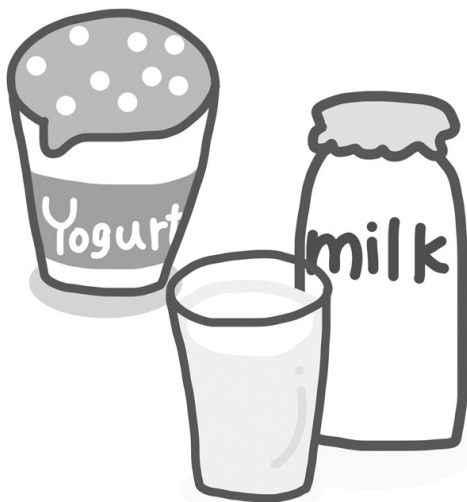

Let's Explore!

Legend has it* that yogurt allowed a biblical character to live for 900 years. Do you believe it?

* "Legend has it" means according to truths passed down through history.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

These days supermarkets keep flooding their shelves with different kinds of yogurts in different flavors.

Yogurt helps to balance the healthy bacteria in the body, and it is also a good source of calcium. Women's magazines claim that it even has qualities that happen to help the skin. When it is applied directly on the skin, it is supposed to heal burns. You should aim to eat it every day. But yogurt is not a new fad. It has been around for thousands of years.

Yogurt is a staple in many cultures known for people who live long lives. Legend has it that Methuselah, who was famous in the Bible for living over 900 years, ate yogurt.

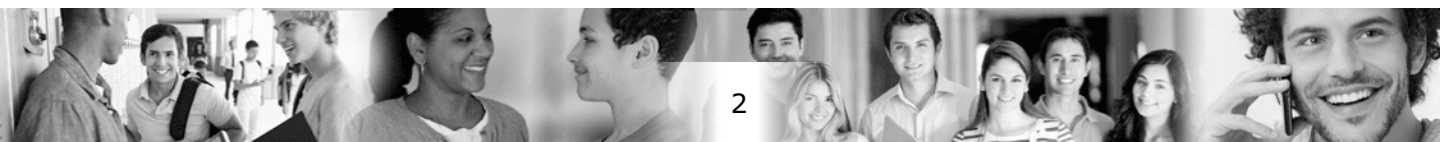

It is also said that King Solomon, the biblical character known for his wisdom, also enjoyed it.

Yogurt is not only made from cow's milk. Supposedly, goat's milk yogurt was eaten by the biblical patriarch Abraham. It is also believed that Genghis Khan, the great Mongol warrior, ate a lot of yak milk yogurt.

Yogurt is easy to make at home. This is how:

Yogurt is fermented from milk and from live cultures. To make it, a spoonful of existing yogurt is supposed to be put into a cup of milk.

The culture in the existing yogurt is supposed to react with the milk and in a few days yogurt is made. Flavors are then supposed to be added to improve the taste. I don't know about you, but I can't stand eating plain yogurt!

Let's Practice!

Sally enjoys talking about yogurt. What do you know about yogurt?

Instructions: Read the text again. Select the correct answer.

1. Which of the following facts is NOT true about yogurt?

- Yogurt helps to balance bacteria.
- Some biblical characters, like Methuselah and King Solomon, enjoyed eating yogurt.
- Yogurt happens to be difficult to make at home.

2. What do women's magazines say about yogurt?

- It seems to make people happier.
- It seems to help the skin.
- It seems to be a fad.

Let's Practice!

Lactose intolerant? Yogurt may not be for you!

Instructions: Choose the words from the word bank to correctly complete the sentences.

Word Bank

can't stand eating / enjoy eating / are supposed to have /
is supposed to be / risk having

Some people _____ yogurt, because of their lactose intolerance. They can't _____ milk products. They _____ other kinds of yogurt, like almond yogurt. This yogurt _____ made with live cultures, too. And it has no lactose. So, in the end, you can _____ yogurt, too!

*"Lactose intolerant": "Lactose intolerance" is the inability to digest the sugar found in milk.

Extension Activity

Visit your local grocery store.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Visit your local grocery store and look at the selection of yogurts available.
- Read the packages and note down the different types of yogurts.
- With a partner, discuss the different yogurts you saw and your opinion about eating yogurt for its health benefits.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I visit a grocery store to identify different types of yogurts.

☐ ☐

I take notes about the different yogurts available.

☐ ☐

I discuss the health benefits of yogurts with my partner.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- fad (noun): a temporary fashion
e.g. But yogurt is not a new fad.
- calcium (noun): an element in food that is important for many bodily functions
e.g. Yogurt is a good source of calcium.
- bacteria (noun): microscopic organisms that live in animals and plants
e.g. Yogurt helps to balance the healthy bacteria in the body.
- yogurt (noun): a milk-based food made with some bacteria e.g. Yogurt seems to have different qualities for your health.
- goat's milk (noun): milk from an animal similar to sheep
e.g. Goat's milk yogurt was eaten a long time ago.
- yak (noun): a hairy animal similar to cows and bulls
e.g. Genghis Khan ate a lot of yak milk yogurt.
- patriarch (noun): a man considered to be the founder of a social class e.g. Patriarch Abraham ate goat's milk yogurt.
- biblical (adjective): related to the Bible
e.g. Methuselah, King Solomon and Abraham are biblical characters.
- fermented (adjective): something that experienced a chemical change because of the action of yeast or bacteria e.g. Yogurt is fermented from milk and live cultures.
- live culture (noun): a group of bacteria that has been grown in a scientific experiment e.g. Yogurt is supposed to be made from live cultures.

Learning Points

Gerunds and Infinitives

A gerund is a verb ending with -ing. Examples: doing, watching, talking, playing.

An infinitive is when a verb is preceded by the word to. Examples: to do, to watch, to talk, to play.

Verbs commonly followed by a gerund:

Verbs that express likes/dislikes:

- like
- love
- enjoy
- dislike
- hate

Example:

Tom disliked eating plain yogurt.

like/love/hate can also be followed by an infinitive.

Some other verbs that are followed by a gerund:

- anticipate
- can't stand
- delay
- complete
- involve
- keep
- risk

These are some verbs that are followed by an infinitive:

- hope
- proceed
- seem
- decide
- help
- happen

Example:

You should aim to eat yogurt every day.

You use Infinitives after adjectives.

Example:

Learning Points

Yogurt is easy to make at home.

Examples:

- These days supermarkets keep flooding their shelves with different kinds of yogurts in different flavors.
- Yogurt helps to balance the healthy bacteria in the body, and it is also a good source of calcium.
- Women's magazines claim that it even has qualities that happen to help the skin.
- I don't know about you, but I can't stand eating plain yogurt!

Be Supposed To

You use the structure be supposed to when you want to talk about expectations, obligations or arrangements.

You can use be supposed to to talk about situations in the past, present or future.

The structure is:

Subject + To be + supposed to + verb

When it is applied directly on the skin, yogurt is supposed to heal burns.

*Pronunciation tip:

When you say be supposed to, you link the /d/ and /t/ sounds together.

Like this: Be suppose_to

Examples:

- To make it, a spoonful of existing yogurt is supposed to be put into a cup of milk.
- The culture in the existing yogurt is supposed to react with the milk and in a few days yogurt is made.
- Flavors are then supposed to be added to improve the taste.

